You're The Expert #4: Nobody Knew

Deportation	Concentration camps	Killing centers
Perpetrators	Collaborators	Rabbi Stephen Wise

You're The Expert #4: Nobody Knew

As the Red Army had moved through Eastern Europe the previous summer it had uncovered at Majdaneck in Poland the first evidence of the Nazi's industrialized barbarism. The ashes of thousands of human being were found in a crematorium. The American and British press played it down, assuming the Soviets were exaggerating…By the end of April , 1945 more than hundred camps and sub-camps would be liberated.